

HENLEY SHARKBITE

Round 17, 2010

No matter how tough, no matter what kind of outside pressure, no matter how many bad breaks along the way, I must keep my sights on the final goal, to win, win, win—and with more love and passion than the world has ever witnessed in any performance.

CAPTAINS BLOG

It may come as quite a surprise to some of you that I have made a couple of mistakes in my life, one of them occurring only a couple of weeks ago. I happened to book a couple of tickets for myself and Shayne Harris to see a rock 'n' roll concert and, like a dill, turned up on the wrong night. It is the kind of memory lapse you'd expect from someone Harry's age but, nonetheless I'd wasted 120 bucks. That, to me, is a lot of money and so asked some of the boys of ways I could have better spent 120 hard earned.

Seamus said I could pay his matchies..... for a quarter of footy.

Gordo's tells me I could put some money in for a plane ticket to bring his girlfriend back from overseas before he does himself more damage on weekends.

Leigh O'Donohue reckons I could buy his silence for five minutes.

On the Shane Walshe budget, I could survive for six weeks.

Rusty says I could buy a share in a pair of his shoes.

Brad Broughton insists that getting a perm would be the best way to spend the cash.

Vinnie says 120 bucks buys enough pimple cream to clear up his chest.

I could buy three 50 dollar notes from Sam Fairclough.

And finally, Fatman spent nearly that much on Sheree's engagement ring. (Congratulations!)

Thanks for the tips boys, I'll be more careful with my coin from now on.

HALLY'S SPILL

After having a well earned rest last week we are back into the business end of the season this week against Gepps Cross.

The past 8 weeks have been very pleasing, with a lot of players away through that period it was always going to be a testing time and to come away with 7 wins and a loss is a testament to the depth that we have developed. With everyone back now and with no serious injuries to report we are in a very strong position heading into the finals. We do still have to win one more game to finish top and hopefully we can do that his week against Gepps.

They can be a dangerous side, they have a lot of pace and they are still in the mix to play finals. I'm expecting a big performance from our side with guys fighting for spots in the team. It would be great to have a good crowd at the game and we would love to have as many Henley supporters supporting us through the finals.

A Turner - Hammy - test

Shamo - Adductor - test

GLAMS

Ladies Day

The club hosted Ladies Day two weeks ago, and it was a great day which involved a lot of gas-bagging, gossiping, mingling, giggling, drinking, shopping....and little spectating, sorry boys!

It was great to see a record crowd turn up for the day, with the VIP Ladies Only Area busier, bigger and better than before.

As always, the champagne and wine was flowing, thanks to the bar staff Postie and Dusty who put up with the girls for the day, great job guys.

The GLAMS Girls and Jan Ronai (Rustys Mum) put on a great spread of food (to try and help absorb the copious amounts of alcohol the ladies were consuming), the usual pies, pasties, chicken platters, cheese/dip platters...and even oysters were on the menu this year! Thanks for the food ladies!

Lee-Anne Sperling basically relocated Mooi Boutique to the footy club, there was plenty of clothes available for the ladies to rifle through, try on and purchase. We hope Lee made some great sales on the day, and we thank her for donating a $50 Mooi voucher.

The 'Long Bomb Half Time Kicking Contest' was won by Emma Burdett, sister of Zoe (who dates A Grade player Trent Kelly). It was a muddy occasion on the field, but that didnt stop the ladies having a kick. Check out the 'team photo' of the ladies who participated.

Cocktails started at 5pm, which kept the Ladies hanging around well into the evening.

Welldone to Gordo, who was voted 'Ladies Day B.O.G', it was great to see he donned (wore) the pink satin sash for the night, it suited him.

Other people we would like to thank for donating prizes or helping out make this day a success were:

- All GLAMS - for everything
- Terry Homan - for donating boxes of choccies
- Shaun Letts - for donating 2 bottles of wine
- Ashlee Biddle - for arranging boxes of champagne flutes for the bar and for prizes, and for the marquees
- Shayne Harris - for arranging a dinner voucher at Bacchus
- Megan Watson - for arranging the 'Ladies Day B.O.G Sash', and for organising the band 'Casual Six'
- Phil Cox - for arranging the Daquiri machines

Band Night

Following Ladies Day was Band Night, with the band 'Casual Six' made their debut appearance at Henley FC. It was a pumping night, and it was great to see the crowd go wild as Casual Six rocked out some old and new tunes.

The crowd got involved and took over the tambourines, some even attempted a shot on the microphones...but we wont mention any names.

UPCOMING BAND NIGHT, NEXT WEEKEND

Casual Six are back by popular demand, and are making their way back to the club next week (Saturday 21 August) to help celebrate the end of minor round.

We hope to see everyone back at the club for a boogie on the d-floor to celebrate what a great season the Sharks have had throughout 2010, and to wish the finalists well for the coming weeks!

BEST AND FAIREST/PRESENTATION NIGHT

The Best and Fairest/Presentation Night will be held at The Lakes again this year. Tickets are $50 per person, which includes Entree and Main meal. Pre-dinner drinks will begin at 6.30pm, with the presentation starting at 7.00pm. See the GLAMs on Thursday nights or Saturdays to buy your ticket.

PHANTOM

The Phantom would like to thank Jason Turner who announced Saturday night that he will donate his last two match payments to Junior Development.
WELL DONE JASON.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A cowboy rode into town and stopped at the saloon for a drink. Unfortunately, the locals always had a habit of picking on newcomers. When he finished, he found his horse had been stolen. He comes back into the bar, handily flips his gun into the air, catches it above his head without even looking and fires a shot into the ceiling. "Who stole my horse?" he yelled with surprising forcefulness.

No one answered.

"I'm gonna have another beer and if my horse ain't back outside by the time I'm finished, I'm gonna do what I dun back in Texas and I don't want to have to do what I dun back in Texas!"

Some of the locals shifted restlessly.

He had another beer, walked outside, and his horse was back! He saddled up and started to ride out of town.

The bartender wandered out of the bar and asked, "Say partner, what happened in Texas?"

The cowboy turned back and said, "I had to walk home!"
