1973 Grand Final

The team was coached by former South Australian and West Adelaide Legend Jeff Bray and Captain by Rodney Bridgman.

The game was played against local rivals Flinders Park at Richmond Oval.

The grand final was played a week later than all the other Amateur League Grand Final due to a draw in an earlier final. Due to being a week later no official score was recorded by the South Australian Amateur Football League or kept by anyone in the club, or any knowledge from anyone from opponent Flinders Park. Although it is believed the margin was 17 points at the end.

The Jeff Bray was able to bring some players from West Adelaide in Graeme Hicks, Trevor Sampson, Darryl Smith, John White, Ian Wildy and Tony Davidson to assist the local players Captain Rodney Bridgman, Des Bland, a young Paul Heeps (who later went onto win the 1978 A1 Hone Medal), Rodney Hill, Robin Christiansen, Trevor Jaggard team include players such as Rodney Bridgman, Des Bland, Paul Heeps, Rodney Hill, Trevor Sampson and David Rankine and ably assisted by all team members.

1983 Grand Final

The team was Captain-Coached by former Woodville Captain John Girardi and the Vice-Captain was Ian Berry. The game was played at Thebarton Oval against then arch rivals Walkerville in the South Australian Football Association (SAFA) in Division 2.

The Henley team went straight into the Grand Final after being 7 goals down at half-time in the Second Semi Final but played a better game in the Grand Final from the first bounce.

The Grand Final score was Henley District & Old Scholars 12.14 (86) to Walkerville 10.15 (75)

Some of the key players on the day were John Girardi, Roger Russell, Ian Berry, Michael Broadbent, former West Torrens player Greg White, Paul Heeps & Darryl Smith (who both also played in the 1973 premierships), Graham Sertori and David Hansen and ably assisted by all team members.

1993 Grand Final

The team was Coached by former West Torrens rover and perennial Amateur player Terry Homan.

The team was Captained by Matthew Wormald and Vice-Captain Phil Dawkins.

The game was played at Richmond Oval against Pooraka in the South Australian Football Association (SAFA) in Division 1.

The Grand Final score was Henley District & Old Scholars 15.8 (98) to Pooraka 10.9 (69).

Some of the key players on the day were Davin Ettridge (8 goals), Rick Coates, David Simmons, Paul Allport, Mark Pazye, Damien Porritt and Wayne Pierson and ably assisted by all team members.

The B Grade – HD & OS 10.8 (68) defeated Pooraka 7.2 (44) at Richmond Oval.

The C Grade – HD & OS defeated Trans Adelaide by 1 point at Payneham Oval.
